DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the call agent, the VoIP digit string processor and PSTN digit string processor must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2614

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 – 4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Call agent is a broad term and is not defined in the specification nor is it in the drawings.

Are the PSTN and VoIP digit string processors the PSTN and VoIP digit map processors? If so, please be consistent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 - 8 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S.

Patent No. 7,127,043 (Morris).

Because of the problems noted above, the following rejection appears appropriate.

With respect to claims 1 and 5, Morris teaches a method of having a PSTN and a VoIP network wherein detecting the digit dialed determines to which network the call will be routed. (See Abstract and Figs. 1 and 2). The only difference between the Morris reference and the instant application is that the instant application has separate databases for storing the numbers. That is, VoIP numbers go to one database while PSTN numbers go to another. In Morris one database 150 contains both types of numbers. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine two separate databases into one or vice-a-versa.

With respect to claims 2 – 3 and 6 – 7, note Col. 2, line 57 – Col. 3, line 3.

With respect to claims 4 and 8, note Fig.1.
